THE NEED FOR INTERCESSION

I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence. And give him no rest, till he establishes, and till he makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.
Isaiah 62:6-7

God gives us a great lesson through the early Church by teaching us the power of prayer and how it only can bring down treasures and powers of heaven to life on earth. This power of the Holy Spirit, the Omnipotent power waits for prayer to bring it down.

The apostles knew better than to pray for their own needs or happiness. They had a deep seated desire to testify to Christ and introduce Him and His salvation to the world. The thought of the Kingdom of God and its glory captured the hearts and minds of the disciples. Similarly if we desire to be saved from the sin of neglected prayer we must open our hearts to the work of intercession. Simply praying for ourselves will be a failure. Only when we intercede for others can faith, love and patience be aroused and the power of the Spirit be found.

How do we become more faithful and successful in prayer? Let us see how Christ teaches us in the parable of the friend at midnight. This teaches us that the highest exercise of our power of believing and prevailing prayer is required in the intercession of the needy.

And he said to them, "Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him' and he will answer from within, Do not bother me, the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything?' I tell you though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him whatever he needs." Luke 11:5-8

An urgent need- Here intercession has its origin. The friend came at a time when he could not buy bread, it was a late hour. If we are to pray properly, we must open our hearts and eyes to the needs around us. There are plenty of souls around us who are in similar darkness – dying because of the lack of the Bread of Life. There are lukewarm Christians who are as unenlightened and indifferent as those who do not believe. We have our circles – parishes, schools, missions, friends where the light of God is seemingly unknown. If we are to believe what we profess – that only God is able to help and that He will help in answer to prayer – then we must become intercessors and give our lives to prayer for those around us.

Dear friends, we are specially chosen by God to be part of a missionary community. If we close our eyes to the needs around us, the Kingdom of God will never be established on earth.

So let us take this seriously. There is bread to spare but those who do not know Christ may go into deep darkness dying from hunger. Our own neighbors and friends – souls entrusted to us – are perishing without hope. Surely there is a need for prayer. And nothing but prayers to God for help will suffice. Amen.

THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

All Christians are brothers and sisters in the Lord. They are part of the family of God. They are Church. Just as the nuclear family provides basic pastoral care and support for its members, so too does the Church, the body of Christ on earth. All Christians are called to holiness and discipleship. This is about a personal relationship with Jesus, and also a vibrant family and home environment, and further, a support environment together with other Christians.

The Church was born on the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit came down on the disciples. Peter preached a sermon and 3,000 people came to faith in Jesus. Then they formed Christian community. What happened? "They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers." (Acts 2:42).

Here we see the various elements that made up community life, which were crucial for growing in the Christian life. First, there were ongoing instruction and formation. Second, they had fellowship with each other. Third, they partook of the sacraments, particularly the Eucharist. Fourth, they prayed and worshipped together. They cared for each other, sharing their possessions so that there was no one in need. They were a witness of love to the people, and as such, were able to attract many more to the faith. They evangelized, and "every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved." (Acts 2:47).

Since then, the Church has grown very large, with one-third of the population of the world being Christian (at the least, nominally). The Church is thus divided into parishes, which are supposed to manifest the fullness of Christian life, love, support and care. Unfortunately, many parishes are very large, and whatever the size, the closeness and fellowship exhibited by the first Christian community are no longer there. This sometimes leads them to lack intense formation, evangelistic zeal, and adequate care for the poor.

One response to such a situation is the emergence of lay associations and ecclesial movements. Such associations are generally characterized by the following:

- * A life of prayer and worship.
- * Formation of members in holiness and Christian discipleship.
- * A communal life, with small group meetings and larger group assemblies, as well as special events such as conferences.
- * A zeal for mission.
- * Participation in the work of building the Church of the Poor.
- * Growing in financial stewardship and support for the common work.
- * Being a servant to the Church.

There is much darkness and evil in the world today. There are many lapsed Catholics. Many are being lost to the world, to sects and even to cults. There needs to be renewal and revival. This is why the Holy Spirit has called for a New Evangelization. Lay associations are important for the renewal of lay Catholics, and for the recovery of the missionary mandate of our Church.

SERVANT GENERAL - FRANK PADILLA

"Build community life, because in the life of a community it is this way, like a family, and it is the very Holy Spirit who is in the middle of the community."

LIFE OF A COMMUNITY

Many wonder why we in CFC FFL have made a commitment to live as a Covenant Community.

God is a community of three persons living in Eternal Unity and Communion of Love. We are created purely to share in this eternal communion of Love. Community is God's desire for us. Individualism is not part of God's design. Everyone: Youth, Single or Married, needs community.

God's plan is to make us Perfect which means perfect lovers like Him.

Scripture is all about community. "And I will walk among you and will be your God, and you shall be my people" (Lev 26:12). We should learn to be dependent on God and His people. Yet, the foolishness of sin and our pride tells us that we have all that we need within ourselves. So, we settle for relationships that never go beyond the casual.

Community is God's way of life, the way that leads to the Truth and gives us Life (Jn 14:6).

It makes us branches of the true vine and nourishes us with peace and joy of Christ when we are obedient to his commands.

A Godly Spousal relationship is fundamental to any community. Conversely a Godly Community helps spouses live that perfect life of unity, communion and experience the love lived by the Trinity.

1. Community builds up

Being in community gives you the chance to be around people at different stages of their faith journey. Everyone has something to teach and to learn. In community we make lifelong friends, learn life-lessons from elders and train youngsters. "Spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another." (Heb 10:24-25)

2. Unity of mind and heart brings about the power of the Spirit

Where two or three are gathered in His name God is present (Matt 18:20).

Where God is present the power of the Holy Spirit gives grace and strength to live out our commandment of Love in Community "Bear with each other and forgive one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity" (Col 3:13-14).

3. Community makes us who we are meant to be: Like Jesus Community challenges us to be more like Jesus (Heb 10:24-25). Nothing makes us more like Jesus than the daily grind of interactions with others. Community teaches us to work through conflicts. There's something powerful about believers joining together, making each other accountable and being a witness of one another's lives. We need people checking in on us, asking the hard questions, and challenging us to really live out our faith.

4. How to strengthen Community:

It starts with every member working on their personal holiness. For couples, it means improving the spousal relationship by having a regular one to one conversation. Praying daily by name for the need of each household member and their family. Being faithful to all CFC meetings and having weekly intercessory prayers in households and Chapters.

BEARING WITNESS

The present struggle of our life is with our elder (teenage) son who is having a tough time coping with his 8th standard studies and is wanting to quit. In crisis, the community has been a constant support through their intercession. Our learning in the community has brought us so close to God our loving father that we can rely on him and his providence in every situation. We believe he has the best plans in store for all of us and that is why we are experiencing his peace and joy through all the pains.

I've been a CFCI Single for over 6 years now. God transformed my life at the CLS and the continuous formation has only helped me to make better decisions in life.

The one thing that I absolutely love is even when there are moments of difficulties in my life, my formators and elders help me take comfort in knowing that I am not alone in my struggle. They constantly encourage and share the experiences of others who have seen the transforming work of Jesus in their lives and help me to stay rooted in Christ.

Maria Laveena

The two things which have changed in my life is my relationship with my mom and my anger issues.

After the intake camp my relationship with my mom took a turn for the better. I am now closer to her where I share almost everything with her, understand her which I couldn't earlier.

My anger issues have also reduced drastically. I am able to keep myself calm and react towards situations in a positive way, and I hope that I will be able to master it one day with the help of our Almighty Father.

Yvon Fernandes
CFCI Youth Mangalore

The community has helped me come closer to God through my monthly kids meeting. Over the years I have learnt a lot especially about saints and realized that they were ordinary people like me but with a really deep love for Jesus and his commandments. This has inspired me to do my best to love more, serve more and be more like Jesus. I try to live it out in my life by loving my siblings, trying to be obedient though at times I fail, by sharing what I love, by reading the bible, by praying, and by going for daily mass. I have understood that being a saint is not easy but it is neither impossible.

Tia D'Souza
CFCI Kids Bangalore South

I have been part of the community for more than two decades. This community has helped me to grow in holiness, to live by the Word and not by the world, slowly but surely. I have been blessed abundantly in this community. Feeling blessed has enabled me to reach out to others, my family, to other handmaids, neighbours and to underprivileged children. May God continue to bless our community.

YOUTH CONFERENCE
COME ALIVE

The Regional Youth Conference 2018 was held from 9th to 11th of November 2018, at King's School Margao, Goa. Delegations came from Mumbai, Pune, Mangalore and Bangalore, along with various parts of Goa. There were around 250 youth who attended the conference. The theme of the conference was based on Matthew 11:28-30

The Music Ministry led by First Aid Band, set a very divine ambience to kick-start the conference with praise songs. The first day started, with a Worship101 session, clearing the question about, 'How do we worship'? It was followed by the first praise and worship.

Participants at RYC-2018

The first session soon followed, "The Invitation" The session spoke about the invitation – who sends it and to whom it is sent to. The session also highlighted the types of burdens the youth carry nowadays, followed by the 3D's Distraction, Discouragement, and Doubt; followed by the promise of rest. The session focused on the verse Matthew 11:28.

Every session followed with a group discussion, where every participant was allotted a group leader. Post lunch, the participants recited the Divine Mercy Rosary and then another Worship101 session was conducted which cleared the difference between a praise song and a worship song. The next session which was 'Yoked to Freedom', spoke about what is the rest that the Lord has promised us. This session also highlighted, what it means to be yoked to Jesus, that Jesus is inviting us to be a part of His work. A major section of the session was about the lies that don't allow us to be yoked to Jesus and the truth was supported by scripture verses. The session ended with a statement that we are not alone because our God is with us (Matthew 11:30).

Soon after there was mass, Fr. Austin Fernandes broke the word to the participants. The evening ended with dinner and some competitions.

The second day began with the Holy Eucharist, the word was broken by Fr. Solon followed by breakfast and then the 3rd session of Worship101 which spoke about why men lead worship, post which there was a time of worship.

The participants were divided into 2 groups, each group had to go through a time of reflection & adoration and prepare themselves for confession.

There was a workshop conducted which explained how participants can become a true worshipper by highlighting the points of the attitude towards worship, laying down burdens, adoring and listening to God & overcoming distraction.

Tara Saldanha

Post lunch, the participants attended the On-Venue Competitions which was a refreshing activity.

Soon followed the 3rd session, "Learning to Rest". The main focus was on 'What do we have to learn from Jesus? It highlighted 6 attributes – Meekness, Humility, Obedience, to be led by Holy Spirit, Trust and Surrender. The session was a talk show between a few sharers and the speaker where they spoke about their life experience revolving around these attributes (Matthew 11:29).

In the evening, the participants had a costume party themed – Catholic Super Hero. The party had different mini-games and spot prizes, followed by a wonderful worship session led by the band Faith. Day 3 started off with the celebration of the Holy Eucharist by Fr.Wilson followed by Breakfast and worship. There were 2 workshops post this, 'Social Media'. and the other workshop was about, LECTIO DIVINA – how to go about reading the bible. All the participants were given a passage on a worksheet, followed by 5 steps to how to read the scripture – Lectio (read), Meditatio (Meditate), Oratio (Prayer), Contemplatio (contemplate) and Actio (Act). In the afternoon there was a pray over session for all the participants followed by the last worship101, which spoke about 'Prophecies'. Post which the praise fest began. The conference ended with each of the participants, having a new reason to live in Christ again.

TESTIMONIES

It's not just mere words but with attached emotions that I say 'RYC was a spiritual summit in my life'. Experiencing God like never before, discovering myself and creating memories for a lifetime. It helped me lay my burdens down and give my all to Christ. RYC changed my perspective: I no longer feel lonely and uncared for, I've found my best friend in Christ. Praise God!

Olinda, Mangalore

'Come alive' has truly brought me closer to Christ, the epitome of my being. The music ministry and all the speakers did a great job in making us understand the true Word of the Lord. I could surrender myself in the hands of the Almighty and I owe my heartfelt gratitude to the entire team that planned and executed it so well. I feel extremely happy that I could experience Him in a special way!

The pray over on the last day was the most beautiful part of the conference for me. I had a lot of things going on in my life which were breaking me from the inside. During the pray over, I poured out my heart in prayer before the Lord, and I felt that my fears were not that strong anymore. That pray over helped me to remember that God is always going to be with me.

Claudia Fernandes, Mumbai

Almost coming to the end of my course, I had the anxiety about whether I would get a job or not; and if not, then how things would turn out.

This conference inspired me to be yoked to Jesus and to learn from Him, to be meek even in times when I don't feel like and above all, to come to Him and rest in Him, surrendering my life completely into His hands.

Ruby Pinto, Mangalore

I realised that prayer doesn't have to be set apart as the 'boring' time of the day, it is in fact the most exciting time when I can spend quality time with my best friend, Jesus who listens, speaks and always has a solution to any problem. I learnt that I can praise him even through singing and dancing and now that's something I look forward to every single day.

Ms. Carrie Rodrigues, Madgaon

Dalreen Fernandes, Porvorim

The best thing about the Regional Youth Conference (RYC) 2018 was that it revealed to me how far I had drifted away from God and helped me recommit my life to Him. I also learnt that being meek does not mean being weak.

Reece Rosario, Mumbai

INTERCESSION

Members share their testimonies on the power of intercession in their lives and how the Lord has brought blessings to their families and community through constant prayer and perseverance.

Intercession is worship. The peace and rest that I have experienced at the blessed sacrament in the presence of a mighty God is something words cannot describe. To know an awesome God to worship in spirit and truth is what Intercession is to me. I have learnt that prayers and petitions are a very small part of intercession. Being still and knowing God is of essence. And it is this presence of a living God that has brought peace and calm in my life.

Intercession unites the community to be of one heart and one mind.

When you worship as one body God is present, and this transforms the community.

Also praying together for a common cause unites people and brings blessings into their lives.

Delvyn Lobo, CFCI Couples Margao

In Oct 2017, it rained heavily in Bangalore. Two lakes near our home were full. One lake overflowed overnight and flooded our house. The civic authorities drained the water from the lake partially. We prayed that the rains stop as we would not be able to stay in the house. It was a miracle that it stopped raining and we were flooded for only 6 hours. I was humbled that the Almighty Lord heard our prayer as in the days of Prophet Elijah.

Ashish, CFCI Couples South Bangalore

My journey of intercession started out as a personal one where I asked Mama Mary to change my heart and make it more like her Son. As months passed, I felt an overwhelming transformation. This brought about the need to intercede for others too. Like a sandalwood tree makes its presence felt by only the fragrance, my urge to serve others was by way of interceding for them, thereby spreading the aroma of Christ. I also use personal intercession as one of the tools to keep away from the sin of pornography and masturbation.

The power of intercession plays a central role in the community.

Luke 5:18 speaks of the paralysed man who was brought on a stretcher to be healed by Jesus. It was the faith and prayers of the 'others' around and the stretcher bearers, that played a role in his healing.

I too felt like the 'others' when I was asked to lead the intercession ministry at the Young Couple's Conference in 2018, where I witnessed a lot of obstacles being combated by the power of intercession alone.

Vinoth Berkmons, CFCI Singles South Bangalore

From the beginning, I never liked others asking me to pray. As we were preparing for our intake camp, we spent a lot of time in front of the Blessed Sacrament. From then on, I began spending time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, on an everyday basis. Initially I found it difficult but as time passed by, I found peace reigning in my life. But now, I do my daily prayers and spend time with the Lord. It is the most important part of the day for me, and missing it would make my day feel incomplete. Regular visits to the blessed sacrament has helped me surrender my anger, thus improving my relationship with my mother. Intercession has not only improved my relationship with the Lord, but also with my family and friends. It has become a holy and important part of my life.

Delina, CFCI Youth Mangalore

This beautiful gift of praying for others was put in my heart by God as I was praying at the Blessed Sacrament. As I was praying for my father to be delivered from alcoholism and come closer to know God, God put it in my heart to intercede for all those addicted to alcohol and those souls who are far away from accepting Jesus.

As I continued to fast and pray during the Lenten week (last year), God gave me his word from Phil 4:6. After few days my father gave me a call and told me he wants to give up alcohol and said to pray for him. I continued surrendering my father and every intention to God.

At the end of the Lenten week my father called and told me as he tried to take alcohol again, he vomited it out and has never touched alcohol again. Jesus delivered my father completely from this and brought him closer to God, so much so that today my father also asks me about our community too. There is more peace and love in our family now.

Alicia D'Cruz, CFCI Singles- Porvorim

When the wine ran out, Jesus' Mother said To Him: "they have no more wine" John 2:3

This verse has always helped to believe in the power of the intercession of Mother Mary. The intercession prayer is a powerful weapon for a family in all kinds of situations.

A few years ago my brother was going through a health issue for three months and was treated at three different hospitals. After two attempts of failed surgery, the doctor said we cannot do another surgery because if it fails he might not survive. On the other hand if we didn't do the operation he might not live. It was a traumatic time.

After two days of praying, my dad asked the doctor to go ahead with the surgery.

When they were taking my brother for the surgery, some of my brothers and I went behind the building and kept praying until the end of the operation.

We felt the power of God in our lives when Dad called to tell us that the surgery was successful and we got our brother back.

Edouard, CFCI Singles - Chennai

The rosary is the most important prayer that I use during my time of Intercession. I also say the Divine Mercy and Liberation rosary. I persist to never give up in my time of praying for others and I have seen it's fruit time and again personally and in the lives of the community.

Vivian De Sousa, CFCI Couples- Vasco, Goa

Through Intercession, I have experienced God's Love, his assuring presence and how he is passionately mindful of his people. Problems huge as mountains melt like snow when we intercede. This I have experienced time and again and it has helped a lot personally.

Intercession is the backbone of the community. Be it mission work, a small program or praying for someone who is sick, the community gets on to the battle ground to pray as one body. Community has witnessed how God goes ahead of us to make all crooked paths straight. Community has certainly grown in faith through this ministry of intercession.

Vinitha Selvan, CFCI Couples -North Bangalore

When we were expecting our second baby, I was diagnosed with a condition called polyhydramnios, wherein there is excess amniotic fluid in the womb which can hinder the growth of the baby.

It is in those moments when you physically cannot do anything about the situation, it is your faith that is tested. We offered up our situation to God and prayed that He takes control, But we weren't alone in our intercession. I believe an army of intercessors started praying for us as we got numerous messages asking how we were and assuring us of their prayers. Within a month the fluid in my womb had reduced to the perfect amount and all my scans were normal. Praise God!

Those few weeks were filled with tense moments but faith in God and the intercession support gave us immense hope that all would be well. And sure enough, it was!
